Associated Students, Inc.
California State University, Dominguez Hills
Appointment Policy

Purpose
This Appointment Policy will define both Major and Minor student government offices according to the Chancellors Office and California State University, Dominguez Hills requirements for holding major and minor student government offices and also establish procedures for appointing first semester freshmen, and first semester transfer students to specified ASI standing committees or the ASI Lobby Corps.

Policy
The President of Associated Students, Inc. shall be responsible for all appointments of members and officers to various committees within the corporation.

The President of Associated Students, Inc. shall be responsible for filling all vacancies of the Board of Directors. All appointments must be ratified by the ASI Board of Directors prior to taking office.

The office holders of Associated Students Incorporated are divided into two classes, which are Major and Minor student government offices. They are as follows:

Major Student Government Offices
Major student government offices include the ASI President, members of the student governing board or others with fiduciary responsibilities (e.g., other campus auxiliaries), and the campus representative to the CSSA.

They include:
- President
- Vice President of Academic Affairs
- Vice President of Operations
- Vice President of Finance
- Director of Legislative Affairs
- Director of Student Services
- Student Activities Commissioner
- Cultural Programs Commissioner
- Public Affairs Commissioner
- Organizations Commissioner
- Elections Commissioner
- College of Arts and Humanities Representative
- College of Education Representative
- College of Health and Human Services Representative
- College of Natural and Behavioral Sciences Representative
- College of Business Administration and Public Policy
• Upper Division Representative
• Lower Division Representative
• Graduate Representative
• International Students Representative
• ASI Judiciary Board
• The Student-at-Large on the ASI Finance Commission.
• Two (2) Students-at-Large on the Technology Resource Fee Committee
• All ASI Liaisons (Non-Voting)
• CSSA designee
• The six (6) voting Students-at-Large on the Elections Commission

Eligibility
Eligibility for Major Student Government Offices are defined by the Chancellor's Office and listed in the ASI Bylaws, ARTICLE VIII, Section 1-A, Qualifications for Student Office Holders.

Minor Representative Offices
Minor representative offices are defined by the campus as prescribed by the Chancellors Office. The University has agreed to accept the below mentioned positions as Minor representative positions of Associated Students, Inc. They are any positions within the corporation without any major fiduciary responsibilities.

They are:
• Two (2) voting members, consisting of one (1) Student-at-Large from the Marketing Department and one (1) Student-at-Large from the Communications Department for the Public Affairs Commission. (These Student-at-Large members may only vote on the Public Affairs Commission.)
• Three (3) voting Student-at-Large members on the Legislative Affairs Committee. (These Student-at-Large members may only vote on the Legislative Affairs Committee.)
• Students-at-Large members on the ASI Lobby Corps (Non-Voting)

Eligibility
Eligibility for Minor Representative Offices is determined by Associated Students, Inc. First semester freshmen and first semester transfer students are limited to minor representative positions. Eligibility requirements apply to the semester of which the term is served.

Prior to appointment, a candidate must:
• fill out ASI Student-at-Large appointment application
• be enrolled in a minimum of 6 units at California State University, Dominguez Hills
• not be on any academic probation
• provide professional resume

The authority of this policy shall come from the Minimum Qualifications for Student Office Holders as prescribed by the California State University and the Board of Directors of Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) Bylaws.

Approved and adopted September 29, 2006 by ASI Board of Directors unanimously